O Mandarin Peking Duck 北京鸭

History and Serving

Peking duck started out as an imperial delicacy over a thousand years ago and has turned into a world famous Chinese dish. Peking duck has represented Mandarin food at its best. The process of making Peking duck is very complex and unique. First air is pumped into the stomach to stretch and loosen the skin. Then boiling water is repeatedly spread over the duck and then air blow-dried. The skin is brushed with a malt sugar then roasted in the oven until the meat is tender and the skin is crispy. O Mandarins Peking organic duck is served with scallion, cucumber, flour crepes, and the chef's special hoisin sauce.
